

Share Management Team

Administrative Staff

Diane McWithey—Executive Director

Diane McWithey has 30 years' experience as a business and social service manager. She has served as Executive Director of Share since 1989. In 1989 Share consisted of one shelter and a hot meal program. During the past 26 years, Diane has led Share in the development of two additional shelters, street outreach, transportation assistance and housing programs that provide a solution to homelessness. She has managed federal, state, county and city funded contracts for the building of the current Share House, McKinney funded programs, as well as numerous foundation, local, state and federal grants for operations and capital improvements. The organization has grown from three part-time staff to 75 staff and serve an average of 10,000 people through our many programs.

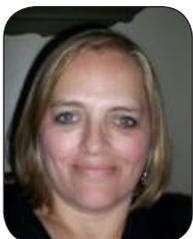

Amy Reynolds—Deputy Director

Amy Reynolds graduated from the University of Oregon in 2000 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history. She began her work in the social work field with a volunteer position at a domestic violence shelter in 1998; she was hired at that organization in the Spring of 1999. In the summer of 1999, she took an additional position doing outreach with runaway and homeless youth. Amy joined Share in the fall of 2001 as a case manager. In 2003, she started her first day at the Portland State University's Graduate School of Social work on the same day that she received a promotion to be the Director at Share Orchards Inn. Upon graduation in 2005 with her Masters in Social Work, she was promoted to Director of Programs.

Sherry Lowry—Director of Accounting

Sherry Lowry came to Share with over 25 years of experience in accounting management and has partnered the start-up of three successful businesses. Sherry's real passion though is in the nonprofit sector where she has over 15 years of experience. Her past employment includes serving as the Finance Director or Accounting Manager of the Urban League of Portland, Volunteers of America Oregon, Albertina Kerr Centers & TASC of Oregon. She also volunteers by serving on the boards of other not for profit organizations. She enjoys the challenge of managing numerous government contracts and restricted funds that come with many reviews and audits. She is passionate about integrity, transparency, and always strives for excellence.

Becky Morgan—Officer Manager

Becky Morgan graduated from Cedar Crest College with a Bachelor's in Social Work. Her previous employment includes 8 years at The Cancer Support Community of the Greater Lehigh Valley where she worked as a Program & Volunteer Coordinator.

Share Management Team

Development Staff

Kim Hash—Development & Communications Director

Kim joined Share in 2014 with more than 15 years of nonprofit experience, 11 of those years working for the Fort Vancouver National Trust. As the Director of Programs and Donor Relations, Kim organized the Celebrate Freedom events including Independence Day at Fort Vancouver, Veterans Day Parade, Marshall Lecture and Award programs, and the Flag Day Ceremony as well as managed the membership society, solicited sponsorships and organized the fundraisers; Celebrate Freedom Star Spangled Gala and Dancing with the Local Stars. She is most proud of her work in organizing America's Celebrate Freedom Salute honoring the 60th anniversary of the end of WWII in 2005. In October of 2010, Kim became Director of Development for Children's Center where she successfully increased awareness of the agency, planned and implemented all of the communications/public relations activities and led all fundraising efforts including creating the successful fundraiser, Glamorous Gams. Kim is a graduate of Leadership Clark County, serves on the board of the Joy Team, is a member and past President of the Vancouver Metro Sunset Rotary Club. Kim enjoys boating, traveling and being a grandmother.

Jessica Lighthead—Community Relations Director

Jessica Lighthead graduated from Washington State University with a bachelor of arts degree in Communications. Her previous employment includes Campus Communications Coordinator at WSU Vancouver, Marketing Specialist at C-TRAN and Event Coordinator for the Greater Vancouver Chamber of Commerce. Jessica served as a Board member of the YWCA Clark County for six years and continues to serve as Chairperson of the YWCA's Nominating Committee. She is also a troop leader for Girl Scouts of America.

Meaghann Ande—Development Coordinator

Meaghann spent her adolescence working in a non-profit, but it wasn't until she was well into her 20s that she decided to pursue that work as a career. She began her professional life as the assistant and event coordinator for c3Strategy. She moved on to a Jewish Communal non-profit as Systems Administrator and grew that position and her role in the Jewish Community into a full-time shared position between Greater Portland Hillel, the Mittleman Jewish Community Center, and Portland Jewish Academy doing primarily Operations and Development. After six years working south of the Columbia River, Meaghann was thrilled to move into a role with Share doing good work in her home community. When she is not learning, talking, or writing about Share, she is typically chasing her two young sons, finding things for her husband, or reading a good book.

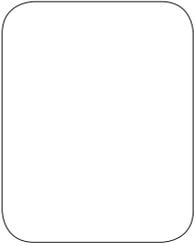

Dellan Redjou—Director of Volunteers & Community Resources

Dellan has spent 30 years as the owner of Smokey's Pizza and has also been involved in leadership roles with several community service organizations in Clark County including the Rotary Club of Greater Clark County, The Greater Clark County Rotary Foundation, The Hazel Dell/Salmon Creek Business Association, Hazel Dell Parade of Bands and the Fort Vancouver Chapter of the American Business Association. In these leadership roles, Dellan has lead, coached, developed, and supported volunteers and non-profit Board of Directors to facilitate organizational growth and community outreach.

Share Management Team

Program Directors

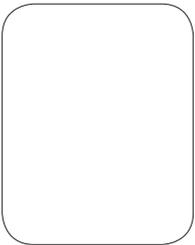

Olivia Resnick—Housing First Director

Karen Youman—Family Shelters Director/WHO Coordinator

Karen Youman has 18 years experience working in the non-profit social services arena, including six years as the shelter manager for the SafeChoice Domestic Violence shelter. She has been with Share since 2005. In addition to her role as Share's Family Shelters Director, Karen also coordinates, schedules and supervises the staff for the Winter Hospitality Overflow (WHO) Program for Share.

Katie Louis—Share House & Share Outreach Director

Dee Sanders—Director of Share ASPIRE

Dee Sanders began working for Share in November 2003 as a Case Manager for Share Homestead and later was promoted to Program Director for ASPIRE. She attended the University of Oregon and has more than 30 years of social service experience. Previous employment includes the Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services in Kansas and in Oregon, Head Start in Oregon, as well as experience as an Eligibility Worker, Domestic Violence Advocate, Child and Family Worker and Family Advocate. She was also an Equal Employment Opportunity Representative for the State of Kansas Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services.

Katie Dwaileebe—Hunger Response Assistant Director

Katie Dwaileebe graduated with a Bachelor's in Psychology from Santa Clara University and a Master's in the Science of Nutrition from the National University of Natural Medicine. Before arriving to Share, Katie worked for Morrison Child and Family Services and spent time traveling. Katie enjoys fitness, reading, being outdoors, visiting the Oregon coast and drinking tea.