Share's Annula Gala: Saturday, April 25 | 5 p.m. @ Hilton Hotel Vancouver

I'm Max Ault, Chief Strategy Officer at LSW Architects. While most often confused as a member of the Senate in the Star Wars Galactic Republic, I have the true honor and privilege of working on behalf of Washington State's land-grant university to lead and support strategic efforts to promote and expand community and corporate partnerships for the university in the Portland-Vancouver metropolitan region and across Washington State. Outside of working with world-class faculty and researchers alongside our region's most innovative business and community minds, I've been known to spend countless hours rehearsing Swedish power-ballads with my close friends, Sam Carmichael and Bill Anderson, on a remote Greek island with an inexplicably large population of singing Hollywood movie stars. Share Best Dressed night and the lights are low, looking out for the place to go, where the play the right music, getting in the swing, you come in to vote for Max and Patrick as king!

I'm Patrick Ginn, commonly referred to as Patrick Gin. I am a husband, father of three beautiful girls and one handsome Golden Doodle, and the CEO of Ginn Group—a wonderful team of 51 employees who provide land development, home design and permitting, construction management, property management, and realty services. When I'm not working, running, or spending time with family, you will likely find me belting ABBA ballads in the Greek Islands with Meryl and Max. Ginn Group is dedicated to Making a Difference by Creating Community, which is exactly why we decided to surprise you all with outfits that'll leave you saying, "Mama Mia!". Honey, Honey, show us the Money, Money, Money and vote Max and I best dressed!
