Portraying Frenchie, this beauty school dropout is determined to succeed! In 2018 Cyndi Holloway joined the Waste Connections Family as the Governmental and Community Affairs Director, a position which brings her outgoing/positive/infectious personality, knack for building relationships, knowledge of selling/branding and passion for this community together—just don't let her near your hair!

She currently holds six board positions: Parks Foundation and Southwest Washington Contractors Association, Identity Clark County, Friends of the Children, WSRA and The Foundation for Vancouver Public Schools. Cyndi has lived in Vancouver for 30 years and is married to Marty Holloway, a retired Commander for the Vancouver City Police Department. They raised three amazing children, and both enjoy traveling, golf and giving back to causes that fight the cycle of generational poverty.

Bart Hansen is the spitting image of former teen idol Frankie Avalon! He is a Key Accounts Manager at Clark Public Utilities. He received his bachelor of arts degree from Washington State University and his master of business administration from Mayrhurst University. Bart devotes a considerable amount of his personal time coaching youth sports.

Frenchie and Frankie want to prove that even beauty school dropouts can recover from defeat to triumph! They are counting on your support to graduate them to the podium to win this Dynamic challenge!
